KOKOMO WILDKATS

SWIMMING

The ladies were severely understaffed last night due to injury. We rested a few gals in order to be ready for conference. When we swim Westfield we always see a strong state team. It is good for our kids to see this caliber of competition.

On the women's side we had two first place finishes.

Jenna Gilbert topped the 100 fly and Hanna Reecer was first in diving.

Outstanding swims tonight come from:
Jasmine Brown, who dropped seven seconds in her 100 fly!
Jenna Gilbert had a season best in the 500 Free!
Jenny Oldaker dropped .3 in her 100 back!

On the men's side, Bryan Parks was first in diving and Nathan Banush won the 200 Freestyle.

Notable swims last night come from Phillip Heilman in the 50 Free. He went a 26.57.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Lady Kats dropped another home game Tuesday night. Lafayette Jeff, back at full strength, took control of the game in the second quarter and never looked back on their way to a 42-33 victory.

The Lady Bronchos outscored Kokomo 10-2 in the second quarter and then started the third quarter with an 11-0 run to put the Bronchos up 18.

The Lady Kats fought back the rest of the way cutting the lead to six points with 2:45 left, but two costly offensive rebounds off missed free throws allowed Lafayette Jeff to seal the game.

Anastacia Kirby played well, adding another double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds. Both were game highs.

The Lady Kats host the New Castle Trojans on Friday at 6:30 with the boys' game to follow.

I would like to thank all the true supporters that continue to encourage the girls through this difficult stretch. We will continue to fight and improve as we prepare for sectionals.
– Coach Snyder

DID YOU KNOW?

The Kokomo boys' basketball team has a doubleheader this weekend, and both games are at Memorial Gym. The two teams, New Castle and Carmel, have a combined mark of 17 wins and just two losses.

The Friday game is part of a doubleheader in and of itself. The Lady Kats will face the Lady Trojans of New Castle at 6:30 with the boys' game to follow.

The Trojans boys' basketball team is 9-1 on the season. Their only loss was to Muncie Central.

The Trojans come to Memorial Gym on a four-game winning streak.

Friday's game will be the 98th meeting between the two schools.

Kokomo has won 49 games in the series to 48 for New Castle.

The Wildkats have won the last four games in the series. The last New Castle win came on January 12, 2007.

The Trojans won six straight from Kokomo from 2002 to 2007.

The series dates back to 1926-27 when New Castle won 35-28.

The two schools have played at least one game every year since that starting point in 1926-27.

New Castle's trip to Kokomo will be just their fourth road game of the season. The Trojans are 2-1 in games away from the Chrysler Fieldhouse.

New Castle's last win at Memorial Gym was on February 17, 2006.

Steve Bennett is the dean of the boys' basketball coaches in the North Central Conference. He has been at New Castle for 15 years. He is 246-82 (.750 winning percentage) at New Castle and is 397-122 (.765) in his 22 seasons as a head coach. Bennett is 6-8 in games against Kokomo and 3-4 in games at Memorial Gym.

Brian McCauley is in his sixth season as the head coach of the Wildkats. He is 81-45 (.643) in his tenure at KHS. McCauley is 4-1 in games against Steve Bennett and New Castle and is 2-0 against the Trojans at Memorial Gym.

New Castle and Kokomo have one common opponent this season. Both lost to Muncie Central on Bill Harrell Court at the Muncie Fieldhouse. The Kats fell 65-60 to the Bearcats, while the Trojans lost 75-45.

The Sagarin Ratings have both teams in the top 20. New Castle is ranked 14th, and Kokomo 19th. The Associated Press has Kokomo ranked 13th and New Castle 20th in Class 4A, while the Coaches Association's poll has Kokomo at 13th, and New Castle is not in the poll.

DID YOU KNOW?

New Castle has only played three games against schools classified as Class 4A. The Trojans are 2-1 against the big schools. New Castle is 2-0 against 3A schools, 3-0 against 2A schools, and is 2-0 against schools in Class 1A.

Kokomo is 5-2 against Class 4A schools and 4-1 against 3A schools. The Kats have not played a 2A or 1A school. The only game Kokomo will play this season against one of the lower level classes is against Class 2A, No.3-ranked Tipton.

Kokomo's 12 opponents have a combined record of 76 wins and 48 losses. New Castle's 10 foes have a sub-.500 record with 46 wins and 47 losses.

Both Kokomo and New Castle will host boys' sectionals this year.

New Castle's sectional field includes Pendleton Heights, Richmond, Anderson, Greenfield-Central, and Connersville.

Kokomo's potential sectional opponents include Marion, Logansport, Lafayette Jeff, McCutcheon, and Harrison.

New Castle has been held to 55 or fewer points three times this winter and has a 2-1 record in those games.

Kokomo has been under 60 offensively just one time this year, and that came on New Castle's home court when the Wildkats fell to Pendleton Heights 69-53 at the Hall of Fame Classic.

Since the 1993-94 season, New Castle has had just one losing season. That came in the 2008-09 season when the Trojans ended 10-11.

New Castle likes to shoot the three-point shots. They average 22.6 three-point attempts per game. Only Wawasee, with 23.8 attempts from behind the arc, average more in the state of Indiana.

The Trojans average 9.6 made three-pointers a game. No one in the state has done a better job of making threes!

Kokomo's 68.2 points per game ranks them 33rd in the state.

New Castle's defensive average is 41.7 points per game, which is 11th best in the state.

The Trojans' 23.5-point margin of victory is the seventh best in the state.

New Castle has held half of their opponents to fewer than 40 points, including allowing two teams just 22 points each.

Only two schools have scored over 50 points on the Trojans. Blue River had 52 in the season opener, and Muncie Central had 75.

D.J. Balentine went 9-for-12 from the field, including all four of his three-point attempts, to lead Kokomo to a 49-38 North Central Conference win over New Castle. Balentine finished with 24 points, including 11 in the second quarter when Kokomo took the lead for good.

Kokomo hit on 61% from the field for the game. After shooting 44% in the first half and taking a 19-16 halftime lead, the Wildkats hit 12 of their 15 shot attempts in the second half for 80% accuracy.

Besides Balentine's 24 points, no other Wildkat reached double figures. LaBradford Sebree tallied seven, and Huston Clark and Cheyse Swain each added six.

Clark had nine rebounds to lead the Wildkats in that category, while Sebree added six boards.

A pair of Jordans led the Trojans. Jordan Hahn and Jordan Richardson each netted 13 points for New Castle.

Zach Hahn poured in 32 points to lead New Castle to a 54-48 win over Kokomo at Memorial Gym.

Hahn was 9-of-15 from the field and made all seven of his free throws. He also made seven of his 12 attempts from behind the arc in a nice shooting display.

The Trojans shot 49% as a team while holding the Kats to 32% firing.

Hahn also led New Castle with seven rebounds, while Chase Stigall had 12 points to back up Hahn in the scoring column.

Kokomo's scoring was topped by Brandon Wood, who had 17 points, but made just 7-of-23 from the field. Alex Anglin added 13 points.

Rick Baumgartner was the coach of the Wildkats in the 2005-06 season, and Kokomo finished with a 10-11 record.

Anglin led the senior class, which also consisted of Justin Pugh, Eddie Polk, Jack Hingst, and Josh Gard. Junior letterwinners included Wood, Joseph Parker, Nick Williamson, DeAngelo McClatchey, and Sam Sirmons. Alston Andrews was the lone sophomore on the squad.

The Kats were sixth in the North Central Conference in 2006 and lost their sectional opener to Harrison.
